

3rd season of Cities in Transition, 14-15 September

Programme

The 48h of the New urban proximities

Day 1

Wednesday 14 September - In Grenoble, new urban proximities are created with the citizens

Meetings rooms:

Morning: La Plateforme Museum (9 Place de Verdun, Grenoble)

Afternoon: Villeneuve/Malherbe districts

9h15-9h30: Welcome

- "Grenoble, back to the future" Free exhibition (more information on our website)

9h45 – 10h15: Icebreaking

- Grenoble Ville Ouverte, Local, European and International Cooperation department of the City of Grenoble

10h15-10h45: Opening session

- Grenoble City Councillor in charge of Urban Planning

10h45-12h15: Speaker panel: Sensitive approach to the "New urban proximities" (more information on our website) -Possibility to follow by videoconference

In collaboration with the « Centre de Recherche sur l'Espace Sonore et l'environnement urbain » (CRESSON):

- Nathalie Audas: Doctor in urban planning and development, Senior Lecturer in spatial planning and urban development, and researcher at CRESSON in " Urban architectural environments"
Intervention: Children's sensitivities during the daily school-home journey
- Sylvie Laroche: State architect (research mention), doctor in architecture and lecturer in spatial planning and geography. Post-doctoral fellow at the C.S.T.B. and researcher at the CRESSON in « Urban architectural environments"
Intervention: The relationship between Nature -Urban.
- Rainer Kazig: Research Fellow at Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique (CNRS), Human Geographer and PhD at the Technical University of Munich (2001)
Intervention: Third places as a resource for inhabitant engagement.
- Théa Manola (Moderator): Researcher at CRESSON and Lecturer at Grenoble School of Architecture.

12h15-12.h45: Move to the Villeneuve/Malherbe districts

- Tram A. (The city of Grenoble will provide tickets)
  - From Verdun Tram stop to Arlequin Tram stop.

12h45-14h00: Lunch

- l'Arbre fruité restaurant
  - Funded by "Solidarité Femmes Miléna", association supporting women victims of domestic violence.

14h00-14h30: Coffee

- Café Baratym
  - Discovering the « Maison des Habitants (MDH) » Patio

14h30-15h15: Visit to Jean-Verlhac Park (collective gardens and urban spaces created with the inhabitants)

- Public space and Citizenship Department of the City of Grenoble

15h15-15h45: Discovering « Place(s) aux enfants » projet in Malherbe school

- Christine Garnier
  - Grenoble City Councillor in charge of Schools.

15h45pm – 17h15: Participation in the "Chantier ouvert au public" at Malherbe school with local families.

- Public Space and Citizenship Department of the City of Grenoble

17h15 – 17h45: Friendship glass

Associated activities open to the public:

(La Plateforme Museum)

18h30-19h30: Conference

- More information to come

21h00-23h00 : Sensitive walk on the issues of the City at night

- Grenoble night project.

Day 2

Thursday 15 September - Sharing experiences from around the world. From the idea to the reality.

Meeting rooms:

Morning: La Plateforme Museum (Place de Verdun, Grenoble)

Lunch: Forecourt of Maison de l'International (1 Rue Hector Berlioz, Jardin de Ville)

Afternoon: Bastille

9h00-9h30 Welcome

- "Grenoble, back to the future" free exhibition (more information on our website)

9h30-11h30: Shared experiences

- Each participant will have the opportunity to share their projects and knowledge with the rest of the audience.

11h30-12h00: City centre projets discovery walk

- Pedestrianisation
- « 0 Advertising »

12h00-13h00: Lunch on Maison de l'International.

- Catering Radi'selle,
  - Experts in eco-responsible, local and waste-free catering.

13h00-13h30: Move to the Bastille by cable car (The city of Grenoble provides the tickets)

13h30-14h30: Reading the territory from « Vauban terrace »: Urban issues seen from the sky.

- Claus Habfast
  - President of the Grenoble Cable Car
- Grenoble Region Urban Planning Agency

14h30-16h15: Participatory workshop: Let's build together the New Urban Proximities by the the common approach.

With the students of the:

- Grenoble School of Architecture (ENSAG)
- Urban Planning and Alpine Geography Institute (IUGA)

16h15-16h30: Closing

- Grenoble City Councillor in charge of Cities in Transitions

Associated activities open to the public:

(Place Grenette de Grenoble)

17h00: Climate Campaigners application official launch

- Entertainment, games and street art.

We have the power to act to tackle the climate challenge.
But how? "Climate Campaigners" is an app that helps you take on challenges to change your lifestyle.